

Git Commands.

① `git --version`

Fast usage { `git config --global user.name "Karthika"`
`git config --global user.email "kathikasrinivasan@gmail.com"`

② `git config --list` (verification)

New Repo: `mkdir proj-name` ⇒ `cd proj-name`

③ `git init` → Initialize git

④ `git status` (track file)

⑤ * `git add filename.py` → [add single file]

⑥ * `git add file1.py file2.py` → [add multiple file]

* `git add .` → [add everything]

⑦ `git commit -m "custom description"`

⑧ `git log` (or) `git log --oneline`

⑨ * Create Repository on Browser → Name it.

* Enable README

* Setup → public / private.

* Copy URL ~~Repo~~ Repository.

⇒ `git remote add origin URL` git.

⑩ `git remote -v` (verification)

⑪ `git push -u origin main`

(or)
`git push -u origin branch Name.`

Remove file. → `git rm filename.py.`
`git commit -m "command"`

(11) `git clone URL -git`

(12) `git pull` check updates
↳ `git fetch` (only view). first.
↳ `git merge.`

(13) Branching

↳ `git branch BranchName`
↳ `git checkout BranchName`
(or) `git switch BranchName.`

⇒ `git checkout -b BName` } CREATE
`git switch -c BName` } SWITCH

(14) `git branch` (TO view Branch)

(15) `git switch main` → move to main.

`git merge BName` → merge

(16) `git branch -d BName` (DELETE Branch)

(17) `git restore --stage filename.py`
↳ Added By Mistake.

(18) `git stash`, `git stash pop.`

(19) `git diff` → `git diff --staged`
(Before commit.) old file name

(20) Rename: `git mv old.py new.py`
New file name. Paperkraft